The Coast Guard Foundation works closely with United States Coast Guard leadership to define what is needed by Coast Guard members and their families. This partnership is key for us to remain ready, relevant and responsive in our support.

Together, we help prepare highly skilled and trained service members for duty, and build stronger Coast Guard families. When we invest in building up Coast Guard members for service, we extend that effort beyond those who wear the uniform and include husbands and wives; babies, toddlers and teenagers; and all of those in our community who surround us. When the whole family is cared for — which is much of the work of the Coast Guard Foundation — our Coast Guard members are better equipped for the critical work of saving lives, securing our ports and waterways, and protecting our marine environment. Our work is very real, and it’s personal and it makes a real difference for the men and women of the United States Coast Guard.

We learned a lot from the 2017 and 2018 hurricane seasons. Each of these storms carved a different path, and the United States Coast Guard adapted and implemented their responses accordingly. Thanks to each of you, the Coast Guard Foundation can also be nimble and flexible to respond to the unique needs of the service, where and when they need us most.

On behalf of the Coast Guard Foundation Board of Directors and Trustees, and staff in Stonington and across the country, thank you for your commitment to our organization. I am grateful for your support and partnership in delivering programs that have the greatest impact on the lives of Coast Guard members and their families.

COAST GUARD FOUNDATION 2018 OVERVIEW

EDUCATION
- Provided 177 new scholarships to children of enlisted Coast Guard members, and combined with three multi-year awardees and two Fallen Heroes scholars, reached 182 students, totaling $500,000. Our record-breaking scholarship streak continued by providing over 100 Coast Guard spouses with scholarships this year, and $55,000 for enlisted members’ education.
- Launched our Professional Licensing Program to provide certification and training to Coast Guard members for use in their careers both within and after the service. In its inaugural year, we are proud to report over 240 Coast Guard members earned their professional licenses through our initiative.

SUPPORT
- Supplied over $622,000 in morale, wellness, and recreation initiatives to Coast Guard members stationed around the country. This year 160 projects were completed, including major installations such as a gym enhancement project at Sector Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan; outdoor recreation equipment for remote station in Ketchikan, Alaska, so families stationed there can enjoy the natural beauty of the state and stay active during the bright summer days, and darker winter months; and, provided 28 cutters across the service’s fleet with a variety of projects to benefit members on longer deployments, maximizing their opportunity for training and staying in top shape, both mentally and physically.
- Supported the future officer corps at the United States Coast Guard Academy with close to $500,000 in support for academic, enrichment, athletics, cadet activities and sailing/waterfront activities.
- Supported the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association’s outreach programs, including boating safety seminars, member training and important leadership initiatives of the organization.

RELIEF
- Aided Coast Guard families devastated by Hurricanes Florence, Michael, as well as members in California affected by wildfires, and the Saipan typhoon which impacted members stationed in Guam. This financial assistance totaled over $320,000; combined with the continued aid we provided this year for members impacted by the record-breaking 2017 hurricane season our disaster relief efforts provided $425,000 in 2018.
- Sponsored Coast Guard Foundation Run to Remember events around the country, to honor those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country. Participants took part in road races, memorial walks, and more to raise over $50,000 for the Fallen Heroes Fund this year. Included in this amazing effort, LT Duane Zitta, who raised $12,000 competing in over 15 ultra-endurance events in memory of the Coast Guard’s fallen.

Honor and Recognition
- Welcomed 3,000 guests at special events and tributes all across the country, to honor those who serve. We hosted members of the Coast Guard at these events, demonstrating to those in attendance the value and appreciation of a grateful public, and showcasing the honor, respect and devotion to duty on demonstrated each and every day.

SUPPORT FOR COAST GUARD MEMBERS

We support Coast Guard members with morale, wellness and community projects, workforce development programs, and emergency and disaster relief so they are prepared for duty. At the core of who we are is a firm and unabiding commitment to the wellbeing and success of those who serve in the United States Coast Guard. When Coast Guard members are supported with quality programs that enhance their service to our Nation, we know we are fulfilling our mission. We keep a watchful eye on our programs and make sure they align with the current and emerging needs of the service, both so we can be relevant to the Coast Guard, and so we can be the best stewards of our donors’ investments in our organization.

MORALE, WELLNESS AND COMMUNITY PROJECTS

In 2018, we supplied more than $622,000 in morale, wellness, and recreation initiatives to Coast Guard members stationed around the country. This year, 160 projects were completed, including major installations such as a gym enhancement project at Sector Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan; outdoor recreation equipment for a remote station in Ketchikan, Alaska, so families stationed there can enjoy the natural beauty of the state and stay active during the bright summer days, and darker winter months; and, provided 28 cutters across the service’s fleet with a variety of projects to benefit members on longer deployments, maximizing their opportunity for training and staying in top shape, both mentally and physically.

We supported the future officer corps at the United States Coast Guard Academy with close to $500,000 in support for academic, enrichment, athletics, cadet activities and sailing/waterfront activities. The 2018 Coast Guard Foundation Hedrick Fellow program featured Ambassador John Negroponte, who participated in classroom discussions prior to delivering a corps-wide address. Support to the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association was in the form of outreach programs that include member training and important leadership initiatives of the organization.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

We launched our Workforce Development Program in 2018 to provide certification and training so Coast Guard members can better serve their communities while enlisted in the Coast Guard and after their service ends. The certification coursework strengthens a member’s knowledge and skills needed to remain semper paratus in service to our country.

A Captain’s License course was the most popular offering this year, while some participants earned specialty certifications in Mercury Verado engine service and an aviation mechanic program. In its inaugural year, more than 240 Coast Guard members earned their professional licenses through this initiative.

After 20 Coast Guard members earned their Captains’ Licenses through a course held in Atlantic Beach, North Carolina, its Education Services Officer wrote a letter expressing appreciation. “As we continue working with our local resources to deliver professional develop sea-service accredited offerings, the support of the Coast Guard Foundation to our members cannot be overstated. The attending students asked me to forward a “thank you” and expressed their appreciation for the Coast Guard Foundation support in making this professional training opportunity a reality.”

DISASTER RELIEF AND RESPONSE

After a devastating hurricane season in 2017, additional resources were needed to re-establish some infrastructure that primarily served Coast Guard members’ fitness and recreation needs, and family and community spaces. These areas of support are a key part of Coast Guard Foundation’s disaster relief and response fund, so in 2018 we allocated $125,000 for these improvements in the hardest hit areas of Puerto Rico, Florida and Texas.

When Hurricanes Florence and Michael struck, followed by wildfires in California and a typhoon in Saipan, the Foundation distributed $320,000 to Coast Guard members in the impacted areas to rebuild and restore their homes and living spaces. We continued our partnership with the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Association that deploys its local chief network to work directly with impacted Coast Guard members and provide almost-immediate support.

A grateful Coast Guard member from Panama City, Florida, whose home was an almost total loss, shared, “Thank you for all that you do... Your continuing support and dedication to ensure every member is best-suited after a disaster is a great feeling and certainly a morale booster for long days ahead. This grant will be in each members’ minds from here on out where I’m at, knowing that the Coast Guard Foundation has their back and will be there in the storm through thick and thin.”
CUTTER COMMISSIONINGS

The Coast Guard Foundation establishes a morale fund for each newly commissioned Fast Response Cutter, which are named in honor of enlisted Coast Guard heroes. The Coast Guard welcomed four new cutters to its fleet during 2018: USCGC Joseph Gerczak, homeported in Honolulu, USCGC Richard Snyder and USCGC Nathan Bruckenthal, homeported in Atlantic Beach, North Carolina, and USCGC Forrest Rednour, homeported in San Pedro, California.

WASHINGTON: The crew of the Coast Guard Cutter Polar Star received ipods to download music, apps and games to help pass the time and connect with family during long deployments at sea.

CONNECTICUT: The Coast Guard Academy hosted Ambassador John D. Negroponte at the Academy as part of the Coast Guard Foundation Hedrick Fellowship.

NEW YORK: New York City was recognized as an official “Coast Guard City” with a presentation at City Hall to Mayor Bill DeBlasio, pictured above with then-Commandant Paul Zukunft. In recognition of this designation, the Coast Guard Foundation renovated the community meeting space at Sector New York on Staten Island.

NORTH CAROLINA: As Hurricane Florence devastated coastline communities, Coast Guard members rescued people and pets, while their own homes were affected. Through the Foundation’s disaster relief program, families were provided grants to renovate and rebuild.
Support for Coast Guard Spouses and Families

The Coast Guard Foundation invests in Coast Guard spouses by providing scholarships and grants to develop their ability to work and contribute to their families’ well-being; and tragedy assistance for families when their Coast Guard member is injured or dies in the line of duty.

Spouse Scholarships

The Coast Guard Foundation is committed to helping Coast Guard spouses earn their degrees and expand their employment options. We are grateful to our generous supporters who made this program possible in 2018, which allowed 106 Coast Guard spouses to pursue their higher education goals, earn their professional license and certifications, and expand their workforce training through this Coast Guard Foundation initiative.

Victoria Grant, a registered nurse enrolled in a graduate program to earn a higher level of training and education, was appreciative of the scholarship. “Your support makes continuing education more affordable and attainable... your generosity has inspired me to continue to help others and give back to the community. I hope one day I will be able to help others achieve their goals, as you have helped me.”

Coast Guard spouses aided through the Coast Guard Foundation are working towards a wide selection of degrees, from nursing and education to business and physical therapy, and many more. All have the goal to contribute to their households in a way that’s supportive of their Coast Guard member’s service requirements and responsive to the needs of their families.

Tragedy Assistance for Families

When an active duty Coast Guard member dies or is critically injured, a host of Coast Guard Foundation resources are activated to assist the member’s spouse and immediate family. This support includes travel and lodging assistance, provisions for memorial services and other needs outside of what the Coast Guard can provide. In 2018, the Foundation assisted three families that experienced loss and injury. While this work can be difficult because of the circumstances, we find it to be rewarding because we can be there for Coast Guard families in some of their most trying times.

The Coast Guard Foundation empowers Coast Guard children through scholarships that make the dream of college a reality, and provides comprehensive education support for Coast Guard children who have lost a parent in the line of duty. The Coast Guard Foundation awarded a record-breaking 177 new scholarships in 2018. Combined with three multi-year scholarship recipients and two Fallen Heroes Scholars, the Foundation assisted 182 students with close to $500,000 in support in 2018.

“I do not know how to fully express my gratitude to you and the Coast Guard Foundation for the impact this scholarship has had on my life,” wrote Jessica Jackson. “I have been able to pay my tuition the past three years without student loans... I am extremely grateful for all the help the Coast Guard Foundation has given me that has allowed me to focus on my studies and my future.”

Of this year’s outstanding scholars, 43 percent are STEM majors; 46 percent are children of active duty enlisted; and, 54 percent are the children of retired Coast Guard members. They include scholars like Victoria Clendaniel, a Biology major at Emmanuel College, who thanks to the Foundation’s support has been able to spend more time studying and taking part in extracurricular activities throughout her community. In her role as vice president of college’s Support Our Troops club she has facilitated the creation of a morale program supporting the members of the locally-based Coast Guard Cutter Tahoma.

These remarkable young men and women have given back to their communities through thousands of volunteer hours and consistently represented the Coast Guard’s core values throughout their lives as they too serve our nation.

Kelly Milbrandt grew up watching her father, Master Chief Petty Officer John Milbrandt, grow professionally through the ranks of the Coast Guard in her hometown of Clearwater, Florida, and she was both inspired and motivated by his dedication. Kelly graduated 7th in her class, is a national All-Star cheerleading champion, and has volunteered over 400 hours at a local nonprofit as a mentor for children and teens. She will study Environmental Engineering at the University of Florida in hopes of sustaining and advancing conservation efforts.

Sam Arnold is a distinguished scholar who will attend Lafayette College in the fall to study Economics. He challenged himself in high school with a course load consisting of primarily AP classes while continuing his commitment to his community. He achieved Eagle Scout ranking from the Boy Scouts of America, as well as several environmental awards, including the Pennsylvania Bureau of Forestry’s Conservation Award.

Hannah Ross, majoring in Business with a concentration in International Business at San Jose State University, has just completed her freshman year and will be a returning this fall as a junior thanks to the Foundation’s support giving her the time and opportunity to focus on her academics throughout her opening semesters.

In the 28 years of this program, the Coast Guard Foundation has paid out more than $5.1 million to more than 960 college-aged young adults to help the families of Coast Guard members achieve their goals of higher education.

The Fallen Heroes Scholarship Program, established in 2005, provides college scholarships to the children of Coast Guard members who have died in operational service. In 2018, our support continued for Adriana Nelson, daughter of Victoria Nelson and the late Captain Thomas Nelson, USCG; and Amy Belisle, daughter of Nicola Belisle and the late retired Chief Petty Officer Richard Belisle. Megan McKenzie, our third Fallen Heroes Scholar, successfully graduated in 2018 from the Art Institute of Tampa. Megan is the daughter of Petty Officer Chester McKenzie who died in 2006 as a result of a tragic accident on duty.

Megan McKenzie, a Fallen Heroes Scholar, graduated in 2018 with a degree in the culinary arts. Regional Director Brian Overcast attended her final presentation to show our support for her many accomplishments.
While much of our efforts are focused on education support for college-aged Coast Guard children, we are sometimes given a unique opportunity to expand our program support to even more Coast Guard youth. For the third year, generous donors, with lead support from Coast Guard Foundation Board Member Tom Niles gave 12 Coast Guard children from Cape Cod an opportunity to experience a week-long Outward Bound course on Thompson Island, Massachusetts.

As one grateful parent shared, “My son had an amazing time at Outward Bound. He made friends, developed leadership skills and learned to work outside his comfort zone. I had hesitation and doubt when I dropped him off but the smile on his face when we were greeted at the dock said everything. I’m so grateful that my son was given this opportunity and I hope that we will still be stationed here next summer so that my daughter can have the opportunity to experience it. Thank you so much.”

For more than two decades, Coast Guard Foundation golf tournaments, first on the west coast, then in Washington D.C., Connecticut and New Jersey, have raised critical funding to support the Foundation’s scholarship program. Now, two signature annual events, the New York/New Jersey Scholarship Golf Tournament and the Washington D.C. Area Scholarship Golf Tournament, continue to provide essential support to this important program. Since the inception of the scholarship program and the golf tournaments, more than 1,000 Coast Guard children have benefited from education support. That’s a lot of long-drives and birdies!
The Coast Guard Foundation Run to Remember sponsors events around the country, to honor those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country. Participants took part in road races, memorial walks, and more, to raise funds for the Fallen Heroes Fund. Included in this amazing effort, Lieutenant Duane Zitta, who raised funds through competing in fifteen ultra-endurance events in memory of the Coast Guard’s fallen, and the Coast Guard’s Aviation to Workout series of events.

Honoring the United States Coast Guard is an important part of what we do at the Coast Guard Foundation. We shine a bright light on the big things they do — daring rescues, responses to devastating hurricanes, keeping massive amounts of drugs off our streets — and the mission excellence they bring to their every day responsibilities — marine inspection, maritime environmental protection, maritime law enforcement, maintaining aids to navigation and securing our ports and waterways. We recognize that all the work the Coast Guard does is vital to our Nation's operation and security, and we are grateful for Coast Guard members' honor, respect and devotion to duty. To honor their daily demonstrations of heroism and mission excellence, we highlight people and units at events around the country.

THE COAST GUARD FOUNDATION REMEMBERS...

Loralyn Cropper, Coast Guard Foundation Regional Director of Philanthropy, passed away in October 2018. Loralyn joined the Foundation staff in December 2016. Although her time with us was short, she made a lasting impact on our programs. Her enthusiasm and passion for our work was contagious and ensured the vital connection between our supporters and our Coast Guard members.
